Friends of Newark Heritage Barge

- The Friends of Newark Heritage Barge CIO aim to create an archive of River Trent history
- They are currently preserving the last dumb barge working on the River Trent
- In the above photograph you can see the barge - The Leicester Trader - with two crew members on the left, and South Nottingham M.P. Mr. William Clark, and manager Mr. W.H. Gant on the cargo during an inspection in 1963
